ENERSOURCE STAFF DELIVERS BIG FOR UNITED WAY

December 15, 2015 - (MISSISSAUGA, Ontario) – After a spirited fundraising campaign, Enersource employees have raised over $37,000 for the United Way of Peel Region.

Funds were collected through individual donations and numerous employee-run events.

As a result of this team effort, Enersource staff increased employee engagement, raised awareness about the United Way and its affiliate programs and surpassed previous fundraising totals.

Since 2012, fundraising totals have increased each year. In that time, over $115,000 has been donated to the United Way of Peel Region by Enersource and its employees.

Quotes

"This year's campaign results are a testament to the hard work of everyone who either volunteered their time or made personal donations," said Chris Hudson, Campaign Chair and Vice President of Asset Operations at Enersource. "Collectively, we support the United Way because of the tremendous impact it makes for social programs and individuals in need within our community."

"We are always grateful for the support of Enersource and its employees," said Shelley White, United Way of Peel Region's President and CEO. "Every year, their campaigns are more successful, resulting in greater opportunities to improve the lives of many who are struggling throughout Peel Region."
